DocuTrac, Inc Marks Fifteenth Year Anniversary

Hagerstown, Maryland January 2, 2008 – DocuTrac Inc. marks their fifteenth-year anniversary. DocuTrac, established in 1993, is a behavioral health and human services, software development corporation. Located in Western Maryland, DocuTrac develops systems for electronic medical records and practice management. Their products include enterprise systems for large behavioral health and substance abuse treatment facilities, as well as shrink wrapped software for solo and small group practitioners.

“Respect, collaboration, and commitment are the values that have guided this company since its beginning fifteen years ago and these values will continue to define and shape our future”, says DocuTrac President Arnie Schuster, Ph.D. He goes on to say that “in today’s dynamic healthcare environment, with changing requirements for patient privacy and security of medical records, DocuTrac strives to be on the cutting edge in releasing new features as mandated regulations require their use. DocuTrac’s commitment to improving its software and incorporating new technologies has resulted in consistent and significant growth and profitability in every year since it was established.”
